

Unstructured

Using a collaborative approach and strategic partnerships, we help organisations grow by automating and optimising processes, and by uncovering data insights to identify business opportunities.

Welcome to Unstructured, a data analytics organisation that is proud to partner with TapClicks. With over 15 years of experience, we specialise in providing comprehensive data solutions to our customers. As TapClicks' partner, we offer data aggregation, training, data standardisation, analytics, and insights to help drive marketing effectiveness.

Our team is committed to helping marketing agencies streamline their operations and optimise their campaign results. We understand that managing data connections can be a tedious and time-consuming process, which is why we take care of it for you. We'll build out your instances, train your teams, and manage your data connections, leaving you free to focus on delivering results for your clients.

We believe that training is a critical component of a successful partnership, which is why we offer comprehensive training programmes to help your team get up to speed quickly. Our team of experts is always available to answer your questions and provide support when you need it.

We offer a range of support packages to ensure that our customers have access to the help they need when they need it. Our monthly support packages provide customers with a set number of support hours, which they can use for any assistance they require in TapClicks. Our team of experts is always on hand to answer questions, provide advice, and offer guidance on how to get the most out of TapClicks. We believe that excellent customer support is an essential part of any successful partnership, and we're committed to delivering it to all our customers.

At Unstructured, we're committed to delivering results that exceed our customers' expectations. Whether you need help with data aggregation, standardisation, analytics or insights, we're here to help. Contact us today to learn more about how we can help you streamline your operations and optimise your campaign results with TapClicks.
