- B. Chaplains and Chaplain Assistants serve on a voluntary basis. They shall work closely with their supervisors in making arrangements to perform duties of an agency Chaplain or Chaplain Assistant. While performing these duties, they are considered in regular pay status and will be credited for hours worked when Chaplain or Chaplain Assistant duties occur during their normal work shift. When a Chaplain or Chaplain Assistant performs voluntary duties outside of their normal work schedule they do so without pay. An exception to this rule is if an incident occurs involving the Line of Duty Death or serious on-duty injury of a member and the Chaplain is expected in attendance. In such cases, they will be paid for their time.
- C. The designation as a Chaplain or Chaplain Assistant is in addition to regular duties and assignments. However, supervisors shall accommodate this additional service whenever possible.
- D. The CSP, in relation to employees and their families, is voluntary and confidential. Confidentiality shall not extend to employees in matters involving the MCSO standards of conduct or matters of a criminal nature which come to the attention of a Chaplain.
