

Light Manufacturing (Woodworking) Entry Level or Experienced:

Description: Handling and sorting parts for manufacturing process between departments; Panel gluing application on 4' x 8' sheets into & out of a press; machine operations, and other support roles including truck deliveries (no CDL requirement). Candidates must have the following qualifications:

English language proficiency, both reading and writing and verbal communications

Understand measuring inches and fractions

Comprehend written documents

Mechanical skills. Must be comfortable with usual mechanical tools

Basic computer skills

Problem solving skills

Good work ethic, honest, and reliable.

Must be able to come to work on time and ready to work every weekday

Willing to work some overtime and Saturdays (weekend work is not typical)

Physically fit, able to handle 50 pound cabinet parts.

Preferred candidates will have some basic woodworking experience.

Compensation & Benefits: Full time hourly position. Salary discussion at interview. Benefits include health care package with HSA, 401K with generous company match, paid holidays and vacations.

Summary: You don't need a college degree to be able to do this job. What you do need is a willingness to work, to learn new things and to commit yourself to being successful. The shop is a team effort with a great crew. We will provide all necessary training and support.

Download the application and forward it to info@jeccabinetmakers.com Tag the subject line APPLICATION. Please include resume and list your recent work experience. OR apply in person at 725 Culver Rd, Rochester NY 14609.