

Clearing the Air with Chris Wheatley, HotTubUniversity.com

When customers are researching hot tubs and swim spas online, it can be hard to distinguish the simple truth from the cloud of high budget propaganda. Amongst all the reviews, videos and forums is a straight shooter by the name of Chris Wheatley. Through his website, Hot Tub University, Chris passionately tells it like it is to anyone brave enough to listen.

When the opportunity arose to invite Chris to the PDC Spas factory, we were excited (and nervous at the same time). With over 60 years of experience, we were confident in our product and process, but oh man, this Chris guy sounded like a tough cookie. We had seen his videos verbally and physically ripping apart hot tubs and exposing them to the world... and we were welcoming him in.

After spending the day touring our factory, walking the line and talking to the production team, the moment of judgement was upon us. He liked us. He REALLY liked us, (no foam and all)!

It is with great excitement that we announce PDC Spas is now featured on HotTubUniversity.com as one of the TOP BRANDS for Hot Tubs and Swim Spas.
