

As a founding member of the firm, S. Gerald Davidson's commitment to strong leadership and a sense of community has been instrumental to the firm's growth and success over the years.

In his personal practice, Mr. Davidson has specialized in the areas of matrimonial, family and collaborative family law. The collaborative process can provide an alternative way for families to resolve disputes, and Mr. Davidson offers significant skills and experience in that area.

Mr. Davidson has been included on the Best Lawyers in America list since the 1980's and also has an AV rating with Martindale Hubbell, a widely-respected indicator of high ethical standards and professional ability. A member of the Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers since 1980, Mr. Davidson also served as chairman of the Family Law Section of the New York State Bar Association House of Delegates.

In addition to his professional accomplishments, Mr. Davidson is committed to giving back to the community and is a staunch supporter of the firm's charitable efforts. He has served on the Board of Directors for the Jewish Home of Rochester, and was a member of the Town of Brighton Board of Appeals for over 10 years.

"Since 1968, I and the other members of the firm have focused on growing a law firm that would provide the very best legal representation to our clients, as well as a superior level of service. Our commitment to excellence has secured our spot as one of Rochester's elite law firms.
