Willow Domestic Violence Center

Willow Center provides life-saving programs and services to more than 7,000 survivors of abuse each year and reaches another 13,000 through prevention education programs throughout the Greater Rochester region. In addition to providing direct services and education to survivors of abuse, Willow provides direct services to hundreds of children per year, as domestic violence impacts the entire family.

Daystar Kids

Children with complex health issues learn, thrive and shine at Daystar Kids. As the only specialized pediatric respite center in NY, Daystar Kids enriches children's lives while supporting their health and developmental goals from infancy through enrollment in kindergarten. Daystar currently delivers inclusive early educational programs, family training and support programs, and skilled nursing care for up to 40 children per day.
